God is Love and Nothing Else.

PRaise THE LORD.

SANFORD, ILL., May 14, '89.

DEAR INTERIOR.—This daily life is not wholly devoid of little adventures. Yorkick performed a feat the other day that could hardly be surpassed for novelty, and which he has no desire to repeat. They were unloading a lumber scow, where the sharks were very numerous. These monsters of the deep swarm in all Southern waters, and although catastrophes seldom occur one has a wholesome dread in running in contact with them; and no one who has seen their triple rows of serrated teeth, in a maw, has any desire to test their deadly power of holding what they close upon. For this reason, when lashing, we keep constantly near the shore and a "weather eye" upon the dorsal fin rising above the surface that indicates their proximity, with almost as uniform certainty as the musical tail of the rattlesnake announces his whereabouts. Well, they were "in force" around the scow and Yorkick, observing a plank floating out seaward jumped aboard in the shallow water, to save it. To his horrified astonishment he alighted upon the back of a large shark, who, being in equal terror at this strange attempt to hoist him, gave a dart and landed our friend on the flat of his back across another. When he scrambled to his feet and into the lighter, he could say what few men of his age can, that he had ridden two sharks in their native element, and lived to tell the tale. And those gentlemen of the prominent dorsal fin are, perhaps, to this day narrating to their fellows how they escaped from a bold attempt of that monster to ride them pickaback to land and capture.

Yorkick has rather had the monopoly of adventure. Just before the shark episode he had a rencounter with the first and only rattlesnake we have encountered. Walking with our friend, Major Evans, to the west of Yorkick's farm one evening, they came suddenly upon a prodigious one, who went into his deadly coil and gave battle for his life. Of course they had nothing to kill him with. We scedder only when the gun is safe at home, and most snakes, empty-handed. Every one knows how this is. Hastily looking around for a missile Yorkick snatched at some insignificant chunks of wood, missed his first throw and the second struck the reptile only hard enough to make it swiftly uncoil and fly to the nearest gopher hole. And so it escaped. Yorkick describes it as the most fascinatingly beautiful of the awful snake games that he ever laid eyes on. Think as one's arm at the muscle above the elbow; brilliantly marked and many-rattled. With head awaying wrathfully above the forked coil; eyes flashing and forked tongue out lapping; ready to strike, like lightning, anything within reach. Yorkick was greatly excited over this adventure, as he told of it. And well he might be.

We often talk of how the dear Lord led us in our selection of claims. What others may esteem a piece of shrewd foresight was in very deed a mere accident, as men name it. We had a map of this island, wanted beach on our claims; and fancying the extreme southern point merely on the ground of its position; selected "the children's" farms with a view to a good stretch of Gulf front. The whole island was before us then. "Where to choose our dwelling place?" The new homesteads selected were in the central prairie, and settlers wondered why we were so anxious to get on the beach. It has turned out that these farms are, perhaps, the pick of Sanibel. Just because we didn't pick; nor take what any one else wanted; the Lord picked for us. I might have made the selection. My claim name in a different way. It had been taken by another, who found he could not live on it. I gave him a liberal compensation for his expenses already incurred—$50—and got a very nice claim. Had I known what I know now I could have had my homestead in just as desirable a place and kept my $50 in my pocket. But I don't regret the settlement at Palm Beach, though for picturesque beauty it can't "hold a candle" to The Sisters.

My claim contains 148 acres; Marie's 175; Georgia's 165; Will's 159; total 651. Of this there are, perhaps, 600 acres of as beautiful farmland land as the crow ever flew over. I wish, dear Walton, you had city facilities and could reproduce this rough sketch, so that your readers might know just where we are located. But I will send it along for your private delectation, even if others don't see it.

[As we are not prepared to reproduce the diagram, we submit a description of the location: With its stem on which is the Light-House in the east the island lies to the west in the shape of a narrow leaf, 12x3 miles, with Pine Island Sound and Tarpon Bay to the north, between it and Pine Island, on which is St. James

City. The mainland with Punta Rassa is to the S. E., from which it is separated by San Carlos Bay. The "homesteads" are on the south coast, which is on the Gulf of Mexico, Palm Beach being a mile or so to the east, and "The Sisters" Will's and Yorkick's claims adjoining in the extreme south, between Bayou Grande and the coast.]

You have heard of tarpon fishing. The Bay on the north of our island is named after the mighty fish. They use there in great numbers. That you may know what an imperial creature he is among the limy denizens of the briny deep, I enclose a scale, an ordinary one, taken from a specimen I saw at Punta Rassa, caught last week and weighing 135 lbs. When it leaps into the air you would think it sheathed in shining silver. I hope the scale will reach you unharmed. At the Tarpon House, Punta Rassa, where fishermen most congregate, in the season, you will see a great bulletin board, covered with these scales and occupying a large section of the central hall. Each scale represents a tarpon and has the name of the captor on it, with the weight of the captured fish. There is nothing caught with hook and line that so tests the fisherman's pluck and skill. It looks more like the kingly salmon than any other and is the gamiest thing that swims. How "Nath" would like to catch one! Leave the turf, dear boy, and try tarpon. Palm Beach shall be at your service, till you are cured of homesickness.

[We received the scale all right and it is a beauty, being silver-tipped and measuring 3x2. Fishermen should come in and examine it. Ed.]

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—A Methodist church to cost $6,000 was begun at Hanley, Jessamine county, last week.

—Hamm gave $11,000 of the money he got from suckers to wipe out a church debt in his town.

—Rev. J. M. Bruce will preach at the Oak Orchard Baptist church, next Sunday morning and night.

—We are asked to announce that the singing class at Bush Branch will meet next Sunday at 3 o'clock at which time there will be two free lectures.

—The 73rd annual report of the American Bible Society shows that the cash receipts during the fiscal year were $499,823 and the disbursements $555,589.

—Quintman, Pa., is the greatest watermelon centre in the world. Last year 1,100,000 were shipped from there. Bro. Percy Elsom is not likely to starve in that locality.

—Rev. Ben Helm prayed for rain at his morning service Sunday and it came, but Bro. Helm had said before that it would come. Science and prayer together ought to work wonders.

—Since the White Caps have notified the Illinois ditchman who claims to be Jesus Christ that he must vacate the insurance companies have cancelled the policies on Heaven, the name of his home.

—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Kentucky Conference will meet in Carlisle, June 5th. Rev. W. T. Rowland, of this city, will preach the opening sermon. Delegates should send their names to Miss Claudia Kennedy, Carlisle.—Paris Kentuckian.

—The semi-annual Sunday-School Convention of the Cumberland River Association, at Oak Grove, was attended by over 600 persons and the interesting programme was greatly enjoyed. The annual meeting will be with the Cumberland church on the river near Stan's Valley.

—The Board of Trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville elected the following officers for that institution: President, Rev. John A. Broadus, D. D., of Louisville; Treasurer and Financial Agent, Rev. Dr. T. H. Kierfoot, of Louisville; Professor of Systematic Theology, Rev. Dr. T. H. Kierfoot, of Louisville.

—The last General Conference ordered that May 19th be observed as "Children's day" by all the churches and that a suitable programme be arranged for it. Owing to the fact that Dr. Evans will be at McKendree next Sunday, he has been forced to defer the meeting here to the 14th Sunday, when the very interesting programme will be carried out.

—The 43rd session of the Southern Baptist Convention began at Memphis Friday with 670 delegates present. John M. Hayalson, of Alabama, was elected president, F. H. Kierfoot, of Kentucky, vice-president, Lansing Burrows and O. F. Gregory secretaries and James Caldwell auditor. It was decided to increase the work of the Foreign Missions and to raise $150,000 for the purpose.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoeal medicine in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Beegs' Diarrhoea Balm will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

Why is it

That people linger along always complaining about that continual tired feeling? One bottle of Beegs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will quickly remove this feeling, give them a good appetite and regulate digestion. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Wool wanted, 100,000 pounds. A. T. Nunnally.

—A. P. Land sold to Bob Nunnally a combined gelding for $175.

—Adam Pence bought of James Gentry a 2-year-old, by Rienza, for $150.

—L. D. Garner sold to Booth Thompson 57 head of 182-pound hogs at $4.27.

—James Baugh sold to Thomas Martin 13 head of No. 1 2-year-old cattle at $17.

—William Cash sold to Phelps, of Casey, a pair of young week milks for $275.

—James & Howard, of Fayette, bought of various parties in this county 15 head aged mules at $150.

—Isaac Herrin, of Bookecastle, bought in the East End a bunch of 2 and 3-year-old cattle at $12 to $11.50.

—Johnson, of Boyle, bought of Alexander and others a lot of 2-year-old cattle at $13.50 to $16 per head.

—B. F. Robinson, of Garrard, bought of various parties in this county a carload of 2 and 3-year-old cattle at $14 to $16.

—S. M. & W. M. Sandridge, of Lincoln, bought of S. Duncan 29 head of nice cattle at $30 per head.—Harrodsburg Sayings.

—To encourage sorghum sugar-making, the Kansas Legislature has exempted all sugar plants from taxation until 1895.

—The farmers in Mason county report tobacco plants very scarce, and many are turning their ground saved for this crop into corn land.

—D. S. Card, of Jessamine, and Mrs. E. J. Johnson, of this county, both in their 65th year, were married at the bride's home, near Milledgeville, Saturday.

—F. R. Harper has sold Valuable, Lavinia Belle and Libretto to W. L. Cassidy for $30,000. Cassidy offered Bryant $20,000 for Proctor Knott, but it was refused.

—The Hessian fly, it is said, is ravaging the wheat on Dix river in Boyle county, and in some instances the farmers are breaking up their fields.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—Tate & Catron bought 14 head of horses in Wayne county at an average of about $18 and some fat cattle of Joe Shadon in Wayne county Tuesday at $3 per hundred.—Reporter.

—To-day at Louisville Spokane and Proctor Knott will meet again in the Clark Stakes, an event almost as interesting as the Derby. The backers of the great gelding are almost as confident as before that he will get there this time in great shape.

—Prof. M. A. Sewell, of the Experiment Station of the State College, recommends as a good antidote for potato bugs 6 ounces of London purple, made into a paste and mixed with 40 gallons of water, which is to be sprinkled on the plants with a sprinkling pot.

—Enmet McCormack and W. H. Prewitt have bought up to the present 5,000 pounds for which they paid 65 cents for May 15 to 20 delivery and 5 cents for June 1 to July 1 delivery. They are a little shaky at present as the market is overstocked and the prices are low and going downward.

—The Chicago stable's great horse and Suburban entry, Terra Cotta, and the famous jockey, Jimmy McLaughlin, were ridden off the West Side race course, at Nashville. He could have won easily on Terra Cotta, but pulled up to let Santalene, the stable's other entry, win. Santalene could not quite get there, hence the trouble. Latex. Matter explained and both re-instated.

—With the exception of the year 1888, Rysdyk's Hambletonian was in the stand from 1851 to the time of his death in 1875, a period of 25 years. During this time he got 1,333 living foals. He began his career when but 2 years old. One of his first foals, if not his very first was Alexander's Abdallah. The latter died when but 13 years old, yet a careful study of the 230 list will show that a greater number of the animals found there trace to Alexander's Abdallah than to any other stallion that ever lived, excepting his own ancestors.

—Spokane, the Derby winner and breaker of the record, having made the mile and a half in 2:34, two seconds faster than Ben Ali's time, previously the best, is a deep chestnut sorrel, his hands high, the property of Noah Armstrong, of Helena, Montana, where he was foaled. His breeding is exceptionally good, the winning strains of the Lexington, Lexington and the English blood of Crater coursing through his veins. His first winning race was at Linton when he beat a field of 12, three-fourths of a mile in 1:18 and at Nashville he won a five furlong race in 1:04 over seven contestants. The Derby race was won on its merits and will go down to history as one of the grandest events of the turf.

The Pride of Woman.

A clear, healthy and transparent skin is always a sign of pure blood, and all persons troubled with dark, greasy, yellow or blotched skin can rest assured that their blood is out of order. A few doses of Beegs' Blood Purifier & Blood Maker will remove the cause and the skin will become clear and transparent. Try it, and if satisfaction is not given it will cost you nothing. It is fully warranted. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—A few cases of mumps in town.

—The tan bark and lumber trade is good here this season.

—Deputy Marshal M. M. Barnett left here Sunday for Louisville with three moonshiners.

—Scott McNettridge died at his home three miles east of here last Wednesday of abscess of the liver.

—Rev. O. E. Buval occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday and Elder Stephen Collier preached at the Reform church.

—Circuit Court convened here Monday. There are ten murder and two manslaughter cases on docket for this term, and several in jail who will probably be indicted for murder by the present grand jury.

—F. B. Riley has bought the property owned by Joe Owens near the depot. D. T. Williams' store-house is completed and he is filling it with goods. Judge Thompson has finished his foundation for a brick hotel.

—Thirteen applicants for pensions were before the medical board Wednesday. This board will probably get the grand bounce before another examination day. I understand that Somerset, Lancaster and Williamsburg each have an examining board. The new administration don't seem to be practicing economy in the pension department any to hurt.

—Miss Fannie Ford, of Owenton, is visiting her brother, R. C. Ford, of this place. Judge Tinsley and Dr. Dickerson of Harbourside, were in London during the week. Eli Cornett, a merchant of Perry county, was sick several days at the Mason House last week, but was able to pursue his journey to Louisville Sunday. Ed and Bill Hackney were in Louisville several days during the week. M. J. Moss, of Pineville, was at the Jackson House Thursday.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Jno. S. Marks is now on the circuit clerking for a bookmaker.

—Notwithstanding the threatening weather nearly all our young folks were out picnicking yesterday.

—A good shower of rain on Sunday night served to check the drought, but the dearth of news is still distressing.

—That was a very, very long convention at Louisville. Some of our delegates didn't get back until Sunday morning.

—The time for morning service at the Christian church has been changed. Hereafter services will begin at 10:30 o'clock.

—If Sam Bryant pulled Proctor Knott and the crowd at Nashville, Proctor Knott and the crowd pulled Sam at Louisville.

—It is said that Frank James took in $2,400 on Come-to-taw. Col. Frank was once very expert in making book-makers, book-keepers and cashiers come to taw.

—In behalf of the W. C. T. U., Dr. Willets will deliver his lecture "Sunshine" here about the 21st inst. It is to be hoped that it will throw a little light into some of the private drinking places that are doing so much devilment in town.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—William Finch Cross, who has been so long sick with consumption, died this morning at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. R. C. Hicks.—Somerset Reporter.

—Mrs. R. C. Warren received a dispatch from Covington yesterday informing her of the death of her uncle, Judge George Robinson McKee and saying the burial will occur at Frankfort this afternoon. Judge McKee was a noted lawyer and politician in his day and was a man of broad views and great popularity. He was judge of the mountain district by appointment of Gov. Letcher and his race for the Court of Appeals as the whig candidate was a memorable event in the State. He was 84 years of age and his death resulted from heart failure.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. A. R. Penny, druggist.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could only live a short time; she weighed less than 70 pounds. On a piece of wrapper paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle and it helped her more, bought another and grew better, continued her use and in a few days she was up and about, weighing 120 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful discovery free at A. R. Penny's Druggery.

W. P. WALTON.

The first man to be executed under the new law substituting electricity for the noose is Wm. Kemmler, who chopped up a woman with whom he eloped. He is in mortal fear of death by battery, as he calls it, and says he would rather be hanged 40,000 times than to die by electricity. The execution will be at the Auburn penitentiary June 10th and the occasion is looked forward to with much interest by scientific men. There are three penitentiaries in the State of New York and each of these are being provided with the necessary apparatus, as the law requires that the executions must occur in one or the other of them. If the machines, which are warranted to kill in 30 seconds, do their work satisfactorily, that mode of dispatching criminals will be generally adopted, at least it is to be hoped so. The miserable butchery of the three Bald Knobbers at Ozark, Mo., details of which are enough to curdle the blood, is sure to react in the direction of a more humane and surer method of legal life-taking. The hanging and brutal sheriff, with no experience in hanging people, is liable to repeat the horror of last Friday, and while but little sympathy should be wasted on men who deliberately take life without regard to its painfulness to their victims, humanity demands that some other manner of inflicting the death penalty should be adopted in place of the rope.

The policy of the Cincinnati Southern officials to suppress the news of a collision or wreck on its road seems a very short-sighted one, as exaggerated reports always result, which do the road infinite harm as well as keep hundreds of people in suspense. Incontrariety to this policy, Manager Smith, of the L. & N., makes it a point to give reporters the fullest information obtainable and relieve whatever anxiety felt in the matter. Accidents on his road are rare, however, but his policy is to be as much commended as the Southern's is to be censured.

The Democrat says a Harrodsburg woman named Martha Steele vomited up a small mouse the other day. She was no doubt at as much loss to account for its presence in her stomach as the drunken man who observed a little dog where he was vomiting. "I remember eating the other things," said he, "but I—n me if I'll ever tell where I got hold of that dog." Miss Steele may have slept with her mouth open and the little mouse mistaking the orifice for his hole and went forward to his death.

GEN. FISK, late prohibition candidate for president, denies that he has deserted the third party and returned to his first love—the republican. On the contrary, he says he is still for carrying the prohibition flag to the highest summit it can reach. We believed when the statement was made that he had changed his mind that it was a republican lie. When a man gets to the point of embracing the prohibition cause he rarely ever goes back on it.

As item like this is going the rounds: "The Court of Appeals clerkship is the best office in the State. It pays about $20,000 a year and the next contest over it will be the warmest ever waged." Calling Chief Deputy Poore's attention to it, he said there never was a greater mistake and that the man who could get $5,000 out of it would do a staving business. It is a good office, all the same, and already 13 men are out on a hunt for it.

AFTER giving more study to the matter P. M. G. Wannamaker has decided that postage is cheap enough now and instead of recommending the decrease to one cent, as the republican platform promised, he will insist on it remaining as it is and endeavor to give a better service, especially to the out-of-way offices. Old Clo' seems to have a considerable amount of practical sense along with over-pious proclivities.

Is the Waddell-Wise contest for the Richmond, Va., seat in the next Congress, the testimony embraces 5,000 printed pages. Waddell, who is a very stout horse, is likewise a renegade and for the latter reason is more than likely to be given the seat by his radical brethren, who need his vote. To retire George Wise for such a man, however, would be somewhat in the nature of a public calamity.

J. W. JONES, Esq., of London, the man upon whom the valiant Gen. Bradley tried to shift the responsibility of his charge that Proctor Knott wrote Simon Bolivar Buckner's speeches, has returned from Washington and gives it as a settled proposition that Jolly, the sole original Harrison man of the Kentucky delegation, will be appointed district attorney for Kentucky.

The new English manner of taking hold of a girl for a round dance is to catch both of her hands in your left and hold her by the arm below the shoulder with the right. There is no fun in that kind of a position and if introduced at all on this side of the ocean, we'll wager that it will fall immediately into innocuous desuetude. The girls won't stand it.

In his speech to the veteran Zonaves, at Elizabeth, N. J., who tendered him a banquet, Gov. Gordon, of Georgia, delivered himself thus over the braying of some grand army asses because it was alleged one of their number had given him a badge: "I do not know how such a scene may affect others, but as for myself I would trust with a thousand fold more confidence the honor and safety of the public to the keeping of those worn and battle-scarred heroes who buried their sectional prejudices at Appomattox, and who are glad to extend soldierly greetings to a sincere man who had fought against them, than to trust that republic to the men who were unable to hide their passions even while doing honor to the memory of Washington."

The L. & N. does not do things by halves. It has not only tendered thro' Traffic Manager Stuart R. Knott a special train to take the Kentucky Press Association from Evansville, Ind., to the Mammoth Cave, but General Passenger Agent C. P. Atmore writes the Secretary that he will order the free transportation of all members over any of his lines who have the proper credentials from the Secretary. The L. & N. did us very proud last year and seems determined to exceed all former courtesies this year.

It is announced that Senator Quay, who fried the fat out of the republican millionaires to buy the presidency for Harrison, is to manage the campaign against prohibition in Pennsylvania for the brewers and distillers. This is pretty rough on his prohibition allies of the late campaign for it is pretty certain with his trickery and knowledge of where to put the money where it will do the most good, that the amendment proposed will be ingloriously beaten.

It is now claimed on good authority that the appointment of Tanner to be Commissioner of Pensions was made on the application of the pension agents, who knew that they would get rich under the lavish and reckless abuse of his privilege. They did not reckon without their host as every fraud who has applied for a pension since his installation has got it without question.

Waxed out with the importunities of the hungry horde, President Harrison flew from Washington in sheer desperation Saturday and took water in Chesapeake bay. The Kentucky contingent were consequently left in the cold, but it is said that something will be done for them this week. Meanwhile they are fighting like cats and dogs over every bone worth picking.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the death sentence of Dilger, the Louisville fiend, who murdered two policemen, and it now only remains for the governor to take action in the matter. It is not likely that he will interfere with the sentence, but will fix the day for its execution at the earliest legal time. With two or three condemned to death, it begins to look like Louisville will have a hanging shortly.

SIXTEEN republicans have already filed papers to contest the claims of their opponents to seats in the next Congress and the list is growing apace. Of course they will all be decided against the democrats as the republican majority of three is too slim to bank on. When it comes to settling such things the rules regard neither law and justice nor their oath.

A successor to First Controller Durham has at last been appointed. Asa Matthews is his name and he is the present speaker of the Illinois House. He is said to be a good man, but if he makes a worthy successor to the honest Kentuckian, he'll have to arise pretty soon in the morning.

The City of Paris broke the record wide open on her last trip. Her time from Queensdown to New York was 5 days, 23 hours and 7 minutes. The Commodore's Estrella's time, heretofore the best, was 6 days, 1 hour and 55 minutes. The Paris flew over 511 miles in one day of her lightning trip.

The execution of the Bald Knobbers Friday was the death knell to the species of lawlessness which had its origin in that State to suppress lawlessness. Now let some of the White Caps suffer a similar taking off and that product of Northern soil will die a long-deserved death.

WHILE our government is paying off its outstanding indebtedness at the rate of more than $100,000,000 a year, other governments are borrowing money to meet current necessities and we will soon be doing the same thing if the pension steal is not arrested.

GREEN county republicans in convention declared for Gen. Hobson for Congress next time. As this is in Finley's district it will be seen that he is not near as solid in it as he appears to imagine.

THE Owensboro Messenger prints the programme of the Press Association, which meets in that city June 6th, which we will reproduce in our next.

Democratic Meetings Called.

The members of the committee for this Senatorial District will please meet me in Stanford, Saturday, May 18th, at 2 p. m., for the transaction of important business.

T. D. NEWLAND, Chm.

The County Committee will please meet at the office of J. B. Paxton in Stanford next Saturday, 18th, at 2 p. m. A full meeting is earnestly desired.

FRIDAY was the hottest May 14th for 18 years. The mercury soared among the 90s and sunstrokes occurred in various portions of the country.

A NUMBER of young people gathered at the hospitable home of Misses Nannie and Kittie Baughman Friday evening and as usual had a delightful time.

REPORT comes from Louisville that a pickpocket relieved Capt. W. H. Welch of his pocketbook containing a good sum of money and some valuable papers. A number of other gentlemen similarly suffered.

A CHANGE in the schedule went into effect on the L. & N., Sunday, but the only change here is in the arrival of the local freight which now comes at 5:55 instead of 6:22 p. m. The mail train leaves Louisville half an hour later but gets here the same time as formerly.

The Southern Journal, a paper devoted to prohibition, lets up long enough on its favorite dogma to denounce the Knights of Honor as a delusion and a snare and to advise its readers to steer clear of it. It costs $50 a year to carry $2,000, it says, and the rate is growing heavier all the time. The local members tell us this is untrue and that it has so far proved the cheapest insurance a man can carry.

The Kentucky Pharmaceutical Association will meet at Crab Orchard tomorrow and arrangements are being made to entertain 100 guests.

W. L. Dawson caught a 20-pound, 33-inch cat-fish in Dix River the other day. A year ago he caught its mate in the same place, in the same manner.

LETTERS addressed D. K. do not necessarily go to Oklahoma.—Elizabethtown News.

Of course not, they would go to the postoffice by that name in this county, where they properly belong.

KILLER.—John Ramsey, aged 14, of Clay county, who claimed he had left home for Indiana on account of bad treatment from his step-mother, was run over and killed by train No. 38 at Mitchelsburg Friday.

JOHN HENDERS, colored, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 yesterday, and lying in jail all night. He is Bee Martin's groom, but some other fellow will have to perform that service till he gets off the rock pile.

THERE were three blind men, all professional beggars, asking alms of our people here Saturday, and on the Friday before two men claiming to be helpless worked the town. This drain on the citizens is growing a little monotonous.

The stockholders in the broken St. Louis National Bank have been notified to pay up double the amount of their stock to meet the demands of the depositors, by the 25th. Several gentlemen here are interested from $5,000 to $10,000.

A CALL announcing the birth of Charles Sunday-Nield to Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Nield has been received. The mother will doubtless raise the young gentleman with the view of running him for president in 1910 on the prohibition ticket.

MURDER OR DEATH.—The city council has at last decided to protect the citizens against its myriads of worthless curs by ordering that on and after last Saturday a shall be the duty of the marshal to shoot any and every dog found on the street without the regulation muzzle.

The board, like all large and ponderous bodies moves slowly, but it sometimes gets there all the same, hence these thanks.

The Kentucky Medical Society meeting at Richmond was the most pleasant and profitable held for many years. There were 120 members present and the Richmond people left nothing undone to make the visit enjoyable. Dr. J. A. Onetier-Loney, of Louisville, was elected president. Dr. Jennings vice president and Dr. J. B. Kinnaird treasurer. Dr. Steele Bailey was re-elected secretary by acclamation and Henderson was selected for the next place of meeting. Drs. Hawkins Brown and J. G. Carpenter, of this county, are among the delegates selected to attend the National Convention.

TOM WREN had his examining trial before Judge Varion Saturday and was held over in $500 bail for the killing of his father-in-law, Joseph Baker. The dying statement of Mr. Baker was presented and is as follows:

April 21.—Being wounded and believing I will die from the effects of the wound, I make this, my last and dying statement: On the 4th day of April, 1889, I stopped at Thomas Wren's. I asked Wren how he came on and he asked me how I came on. He made at me, ran his hand in his pocket, drew his pistol and shot at me three times before he hit me. The first time his pistol snapped. We had no words at the time he shot me until he commenced trying to shoot me. Bill King was not there until after I was shot. I was in Thomas Wren's house when he commenced trying to shoot me. I was trying to get away from Wren when he shot me. I was a short distance from the house when I was shot. My business for stopping was to get my supper. I had a clevis in my hand at the time I was shot. I had no hatchet at the time.

JOSEPH X BAKER.

The statement was sworn and subscribed to before L. K. Wells, justice of the peace.

Wren swore almost to the reverse of this, claiming that Baker came to his house and said he was going to kill him for whipping his daughter. He got after him with a chair and he ran with Baker pursuing him with a hatchet, and only shot to save his life. The testimony of the other witnesses was conflicting though there were no eye witnesses to the killing. The prosecution was assisted by J. W. Alcorn and J. S. Owsley, Jr., with Hon. Fontaine F. Bobbitt holding a lone hand for the defense. Mr. Owsley made his maiden speech and is said to have acquitted himself very creditably. Mr. Bobbitt made a characteristic speech for his client, which was highly appreciated by him and his friends.

We will open a new lot of embroidered and plain white goods to-day. Severance & Son.

The West Enders supplement the East Enders' call on Dick Warren and seem determined that he shall make the race for representative.

Is order to advertise my work I will make cabinet photographs for the next 15 days at $3 per dozen, then my price will go back to $4. Satisfaction guaranteed. A. J. Earp, Stamford.

A GOOD RAIN, predicted by Mr. Greeley, fell Sunday evening and from what we can learn it was pretty well distributed all over this section. The quantity was not sufficient to thoroughly wet the parched ground, but the backbone of the drought is no doubt broken and we will get plenty before many days. Some hail accompanied the storm but it did little or no damage. Since the above was put in type another good rain fell yesterday afternoon and it is safe to predict that we will soon be grumbling because of too much wetness.

At the regular meeting of the council W. H. Miller presented a resolution that the town subscribe $500 towards the building of the proposed pike to run from the Myers corner over the hill, to intersect the Crab Orchard pike at Needmore, the money to be expended within the town limits. Owing to the absence of a full board, the resolution was laid over till the June meeting. Mr. Miller tells us that the right of way will be given clean through and that with the $500 proposed above and which will be voted, he already has $1,000 to commence the work.

ANOTHER KILLING.—Hon. E. S. Good, who was here yesterday, tells us that Constable Doolin, of Pulaski, shot a young man named Watson at Oak Grove Church, in Pulaski, Saturday, from the effects of which he died Sunday. The semi-annual convention of the Sunday-schools of the Cumberland River Association was being held at the church, when a party of rowdies came with the avowed intention of breaking up the meeting. They got Watson to join them and after getting him pretty full of whiskey they began to shoot behind the church. On motion of a delegate the constable was requested to go out and stop it, but seeing the crowd he went to a neighboring house and procured a rifle. Watson started to run, attempting to fire his pistol as he did so, when on the suggestion of a bystander the constable fired, the ball from his rifle entering Watson's back and lodging in his bowels. The other rascals then fled, but more trouble is feared. Deputy Sheriff Hobbit came up Sunday and arrested Doolin and another man and took them to Somerset.

THREE TO TWO.—To say that the Intemperance did themselves proud in the game with the Danville Base Ball Club would be but a faint touch at justice to the youthful experts who compose the club that have honored this paper with its name. The Danvilles have wiped the earth up with every nine they have played this season and of course thought they would do likewise here, but alas, "the best laid plans gang aft agley" and they returned to their home with feathers ticked and as sore a set of boys as ever sawed the air. In fact they "cut off more than they could chew" and although they played a very good game they were unequal to the occasion and suffered the consequences which was a sore defeat. Composing the Danville nine are the following gentlemen, together with their positions: G. A. McRoberts, 1 base; Hann, pitcher; Dillehay, left field; Jno. McRoberts, 2d base; J. Fisher, 3d base; Tinsley, right field; Brown, catcher; Woolfolk, short stop; R. Fisher, centre field and the Intemperance boys are Mack Ferrell, 1st base; Albert Severance, pitcher; Will Shanks, left field; Joe Embury, 2d base; Frank McKinney, 3d base; Stuckey, right field; Les Wilson, catcher; Thomas Rice, short stop; Robert Davison, centre field. Up to the fifth inning the score stood 1 to nothing in favor of the I. J.s, but a wild pitch by Severance, which was the only error he made, let in one of the Danvilles and then to the seventh they stood 1 and 1, when the I. J.s made another score. In the eighth inning one score apiece was made and in the ninth 3 were struck out which gave the game to our boys who did not play their portion of the last inning. The special features of the game were the superb battery work of Severance and Wilson; the fine catch of a high fly by Shanks; the phenomenal catch of a "twister" by Frank McKinney and of a foul by Wilson. The first and second bases were held down by Ferrell and Embury, the latter well backed up by Davison, centre fielder. The hard batting of Stuckey, Wilson and Severance showed that they easily caught on to Hann's curves. Struck out by Severance 14, by Hann 10; passed balls, Wilson 1, on Severance's wild pitch, Brown 3. The Danvilles played a strong game from start to finish and are gentlemen as well as ball players. Sharp Shaw, umpire, did his work well and gave general satisfaction.

—Tromble, which has been brewing for several days between the whites and the blacks at Gretna, Ia., culminated Saturday night in the wounding of four negroes and the burning of the negro fire company's engine house, the negro Baptist church and four small houses occupied by negroes by the rough white element.

HUSTONVILLE.

Sunday was hot enough for any respectable August day, closing with a delightful rain.

James DRYE is making active preparations for his removal to Kansas. We are troubled about the loss of him and everything he takes with him—except his vote.

The oats crop is beyond redemption. The wool crop is generally harvested and garnered. J. H. Green, the great indefatigable, packed and paid for some 25,000 pounds last week and is not yet through.

The venerable Greenberry Bright and Ed White have been spending a few days with Mr. L. B. Adams and family. The old gentleman looks remarkably hale and bears the burden of his 85 years lightly. Like the rest of us, he is living in the Past—reminiscing his memories, re-enacting its scenes and clinging fondly to its reminiscences.

I was surprised and startled somewhat about two weeks since by a peremptory challenge from H. C. Rupley with an order of arrest commanding him to measure me for a suit of clothes. Mr. R. declined to give me the name of the prosecutor, but insisted on his obligation and purpose to execute the warrant. Finding resistance useless I submitted with my usual meekness. In a few days I received a package containing a more elegant outfit than I have had for many a year. I do not yet know clearly to whom I am indebted for the thoughtful remembrance. I can only say now I do not know which to admire most—the elegance of the gift, the artistic style in which it is gotten up, or the fine discrimination of the donor in its bestowal. It is needless to add that it is gratefully appreciated.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

Smith Ping is building a store-house on West Main street.

James Prewitt reported a row in town early Saturday morning. It was Tom Bow, from Skaggs Creek. Prewitt was promptly nailed.

A crowd of our young people went to Roundstone Saturday on a fishing excursion, in wagons, horseback and afoot. A good catch and a fine time is reported.

No instructions were given the delegates appointed at Saturday's convention to attend the Louisville convention for nominating a candidate for State treasurer.

Surveyor Wallen is engaged in a 12,000-acre tract of land near Hazel Patch for a coal and lumber company, and has lately purchased large tracts for lumber and mining purposes.

Amos Bays Proctor was the first woman that cooked on a stove in this county. Richard Williams was the first man to put in a grate and burn coal. Mrs. Pauline Smith was the owner of the first sewing machine, also the first sangee grinder, a small affair, costing $20.

Mart Owens ate the first Norway rat caught in the county under the impression that it was a squirrel. With the exception of Richard Williams all the the above people are yet living.

James Bonware and wife, of Danville, Illinois, are visiting relatives at this place. Mrs. F. H. Reppert with little Mary Stoner, is visiting in the county. Engineer Wallace spent Sunday repairing his engine. Hiram Broyles the crazy picture man, was here Monday. J. B. Vance, of Brodhead, was here yesterday. J. W. Brown and wife, of Lancaster, are here to see relatives. H. P. Johnson, of Bryantsville, passed on route home from a trip to Tennessee Sunday night. Elza Woodall has been appointed agent at Altamont.

The West End Also Demands His Candidacy.

To HON. R. C. WARREN:—We, the undersigned, second the call on you again, to become a candidate to represent Lincoln county in the next legislature, believing you to be the choice of this end of the county, will promise you our hearty support. Yours Respectfully,

The Long and the Short of It.

If you buy a McCORMACK REAPER or MOWER you are certain to get one of the best Machines made.

If you buy a McCormack Machine you can depend on getting repairs when wanted, without delay or vexation, which is one of the most important objects to consider when selecting a Reaper or Mower; no mistake about it.

The McCormack Machine Co. have always been in the lead of their competitors in the manufacture of Twine Binders, and with their Improved No. 4 and Big Four Mowers they have a line of Machines second to none.

By all means, see these Machines before you make your selection for the coming harvest.
